CHURCH GROWTH AND EVANGELISM

In this issue, the Reeves begin multiple evangelistic outreaches within the community, Beckham breaks his arm while at church, and the Bell family arrives in England.

Our Ministry

During the summer we began multiple evangelistic outreaches for our new church replant. In June, we had a dedication service and BBQ celebrating the reopening of our church building with over 60 in attendance! We then had a missions team from Oak Hill Baptist help us with our high street evangelism. The team had over 100 one-on-one Gospel conversations and passed out over 5,000 invites for our next church event. This outreach was a neighborhood BBQ and movie night where we had over 80 come. Praise God! In July, we continued our community outreach with a missions team from Texas where many more heard the Gospel. Later, we had the opportunity to share our missions journey with visiting seminary students from multiple U.S. Bible colleges. Lastly, we were blessed to be joined by Josh and Ashley Bell as their family made the big move to London.

Our Family

In July, while at church on Sunday evening, someone fell on Beckham while they were playing after service and accidentally broke his left arm. Please pray for healing and a quick recovery for Beckham.

Our Field

Here are a few recent missions team quotes. "My trip to London not only changed my life but has also changed my perception of what our missionaries face each day. It was a blessing to work with Tarl and Justin and share the Gospel there" - Julie. "Our trip to London was eye opening. Tarl and Justin have a tremendous field to harvest, but they also have tremendous hurdles. Please pray for God to prepare the people's hearts in Welling as they hear the Gospel" - David. "Tarl and Justin are serving on a very difficult mission field. Daily they face open hostility for their ministry work. If you are looking to invest in missions, then I would invite you to contact them. Tarl and Justin are two of the most fired-up men for Christ that I have met. They are bold and certainly not ashamed of the Gospel of Jesus Christ" - AC.
